Dear Dr. Hanff:

Thank you for writing Director Casey, for whom I am responding.

The Central Intelligence Agency can attach very little credence to a Washington Post article which attributes its assertions to unnamed sources about whom we really know nothing. It is simply not possible to see any benefit that might come from our meeting to discuss the Polish underground based on a fatuous newspaper article.

Although we are unable to be of assistance at this time, we are nevertheless glad to hear from concerned individuals such as yourself. You may wish to bring your concerns to the attention of the State Department.

Sincerely,

STAT
